

Catholic Regional College Melton Internal School Process for Mandatory Reporting

Internal school process for mandatory reporting

MACS schools should develop internal procedures consistent with PROTECT and the Four Critical Actions referenced in the Policy. Schools may document these internal procedures below in a variety of ways, including a flow chart. The internal procedures must be readily available to all members of the school community, including on the public website.